The house of rising sun

The animals

La- Do Re Fa

1. There is a house in New Orleans

La- Do Mi Mi

They call the Risin' Sun

La- Do Re Fa

And it's been the ruin of many a poor boy.

La- Mi La
And God, I know I'm one.

- La- Do Re Fa

 2. My mother was a tailor.

 La- Do Mi M

 She sewed my new blue jeans.

 La- Do Re Fa

 My father was a gamblin' man

 La- Mi La
 Down in New Or-leans.
- La- Do Re Fa
 3. Now, the only thing a gambler needs
 La- Do Mi Mi
 Is a suitcase and a trunk
 La- Do Re Fa
 And the only time that he's satisfied
 La- Mi LaIs when he's on a drunk
- 4. Oh, Mother, tell your children

 La- Do Mi Mi

 Not to do what I have done.

 La- Do Re Fa

 Spend your lives in sin and misery

 La- Mi La
 In the house of the risin' sun.
- La- Do Re Fa
 5. Well, I've got one foot on the platform,
 La- Do Mi Mi
 the other foot on the train.
 La- Do Re Fa
 I'm goin' back to New Orleans
 La- Mi LaTo wear that ball and chain.
- La- Do Re Fa
 6. Well, there is a house in New Orleans

 La- Do Mi Mi
 They call the Risin' Sun

 La- Do Re Fa
 And it's been the ruin of many a poor boy.

 La- Mi LaAnd God, I know I'm one.
